SUPERVISED RELEASE

The term of imprisonment is to be followed by a four-year term of supervised release. Defendant shall comply with the standard conditions of supervision.

Defendant shall report to the probation office in the district to which defendant is released within 72 hours of release from the custody of the Bureau of Prisons.

Defendant shall not commit another federal, state, or local crime.

Defendant shall not illegally possess a controlled substance.

If defendant has been convicted of a felony, defendant shall not possess a firearm, destructive device, or other dangerous weapon while on supervised release.

Defendant shall cooperate with the collection of DNA by the U.S. Justice Department and/or the U.S. Probation and Pretrial Services Office as required by Public Law 108-405.

If this judgment imposes a fine or a restitution obligation, it shall be a condition of supervised release that defendant pay any such fine or restitution that remains unpaid at the commencement of the term of supervised release in accordance with the Schedule of Payments set forth in the Financial Penalties sheet of this judgment.

Defendant shall comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court (set forth on the next page).

For offenses committed on or after September 13, 1994:

In accordance with the provisions of 18 U.S.C. § 3583(d), defendant shall refrain from any unlawful use of controlled substances and submit to a drug test within 15 days of his release. Defendant shall submit to no more than 12 random urinalysis tests during the term of supervision. If any results indicate illicit drug use, I will determine whether further action should be taken.

[] The above drug testing condition is suspended, based on the court's determination that the defendant poses a low risk of future substance abuse.

In light of the nature of the offense and defendant's admitted use of alcohol, the following special conditions are appropriate. Defendant is to:

1. Register with local law enforcement agencies and the state attorney general as directed by the supervising U.S. probation officer;
2. Provide the supervising U.S. probation officer any and all requested financial information;
3. Have no association with drug users and sellers;
4. Pay court-ordered child support obligations; and
5. Submit his person, property, residence, office or vehicle to a search conducted by a U.S. probation officer at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner whenever the probation officer has reasonable suspicion of contraband or of the violation of a condition of release; failure to submit to a search may be a ground for revocation; defendant shall warn any other residents that the premises he is occupying may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition.

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

- 2) Defendant shall report to the probation officer as directed by the court or probation officer and shall submit a truthful and complete written report within the first five days of each month;

RESTITUTION

SCHEDULE OF PAYMENTS

Payments shall be applied in the following order:

- (1) assessment;
- (2) restitution;
- (3) fine principal;
- (4) cost of prosecution;
- (5) interest;
- (6) penalties.

The total fine and other monetary penalties shall be due in full immediately unless otherwise stated elsewhere.

Unless the court has expressly ordered otherwise in the special instructions above, if the judgment imposes a period of imprisonment, payment of monetary penalties shall be due during the period of imprisonment. All criminal monetary penalties, except those payments made through the Federal Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program, are made to the clerk of court, unless otherwise directed by the court, the probation officer, or the United States Attorney.

The defendant shall receive credit for all payments previously made toward any criminal monetary penalties imposed.

In the event of a civil settlement between victim and defendant, defendant must provide evidence of such payments or settlement to the Court, U.S. Probation office, and U.S. Attorney's office so that defendant's account can be credited.
